

LAREDO GROUP INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN SERVICES (IDS)

Use our Instructional Designers to work with your Subject Matter Experts...and/or engage additional external experts...to design, develop, and deliver Instructor-Led or engaging eLearning courses for you to use and/or publish on your existing Learning Management System (LMS).

Laredo Group curricula and courses provide learners with an immediately impactful and easy-to-understand real-world learning experience, designed to build confidence and make your content come to life. We are experts in the Adult Learning Theory and the Instructional Framework techniques you need to make your existing or new training truly effective.
